TAFE / EXTERNALLY DELIVERED PROFILE COURSES

To ensure readiness for class, all required items must be obtained before the course begins

Depending on the course, Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) or a basic work placement uniform may be required. Providers will advise on specific PPE needs.

This may include; work boots, long navy drill pants, navy cotton drill long-sleeve shirts, windproof jackets, hats, water bottle, gloves, safety glasses, or other suitable work attire.

If applicable, external course fees are determined by the provider. Providers will inform students of associated course costs. These fees are paid directly to the provider.

Students may need to supply additional general stationery and, in some cases, course specific workbooks. Individual workbooks can be purchased directly from the provider.

SIDE / ONLINE COURSES

Online courses may require additional textbooks, workbooks, and personal stationery.

Before the school year begins, SIDE publishes the course material lists on their website.

Online teachers may also provide specific guidance on the materials needed for each course.

To avoid delays, purchase required items as soon as possible, allowing sufficient time for delivery before the school year starts.

COURSE SPECIFIED ITEMS

In addition to the 'Essential' items list, students may require the following;

Textbooks & Workbooks:

For many subjects, textbooks are provided on loan through the textbook hire fee included in the course fees and charges.

Study Guides & Workbooks:

The study guides and workbooks listed are for personal use that students purchase and retain.

Please ensure you only select items relevant to the correct year level.

Refer to the included Charges & Contributions statement for details on specific timetabled courses.

Not all courses are listed below. Some subjects may not require additional workbooks or items.
