YEARS 7 - 10
INFORMATION
Purchases can be made from any supplier of your choice or online through Campion.
Below are the recommended requirements for a student to begin the school year.
To be prepared for class, students should bring personal stationery to school each day.
Consumable items should be replaced during the year.
Where applicable, items can be reused from previous years.
It is beneficial to mark each item with your child's name, including clothing and school bag .
School Uniform and House Shirts are available from Katanning SportsPower.
If you are unsure of your child's house or colour, please contact the school front reception to confirm.
PERSONAL ITEMS
1. School bag, water bottle, recess and lunch refreshments - there is no canteen onsite.
2. School uniform - available from Katanning SportsPower.
3. Phys Ed classes - change of clothes & house shirt.
4. Home Ec / Food classes - food container with lid.
5. Applicable protective footwear & safety clothing - for D&T, off site courses, certificate classes, etc.

CERT II CONSERVATION KOJONUP / EXTERNAL COURSES / TAFE / SIDE / ETC

To ensure readiness for class, all required items must be obtained before the course begins

Depending on the course, Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) or a basic work placement uniform may be required. Providers will advise on specific PPE needs.

This may include; work boots, long navy drill pants, navy cotton drill long-sleeve shirts, windproof jackets, hats, water bottle, gloves, safety glasses, or other suitable work attire.

If applicable, external course fees are determined by the provider. Providers will inform students of associated course costs. These fees are paid directly to the provider.

Students may need to supply additional general stationery and, in some cases, course specific workbooks. Individual workbooks can be purchased directly from the provider.
